

23rd Psalm Series

Part 6

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²*He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters.*

³*He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.*

⁴*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;*

For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

⁵*You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;*

You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalm 23:1-6 (NKJV)

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. ⁹ And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God. Hebrews 11:8-10

For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down (that is, when we die and leave this earthly body), we will have a house in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands. ² We grow weary in our present bodies, and we long to put on our heavenly bodies like new clothing. ³ For we will put on heavenly bodies; we will not be spirits without bodies. ⁴ While we live in these earthly bodies, we groan and sigh, but it's not that we want to die and get rid of these bodies that clothe us. Rather, we want to put on our new bodies so that these dying bodies will be swallowed up by life. ⁵ God himself has prepared us for this, and as a guarantee he has given us his Holy Spirit. 2 Corinthians 5:1-5
